

ATHLETIC GAMES AT PRINCETON.

SPRING MEETING OF THE PRINCETON ATHLETIC CLUB—THE RESULT IN EACH EVENT.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

PRINCETON, June 15.—The annual spring meeting of the Princeton Athletic Club took place this afternoon on the college ball field. These are not to be confounded with the Princeton College Athletic Games, which occur next Monday. Students entered for this meeting from the University of Pennsylvania, and from Princeton College. The other contestants were amateur athletes. The 100-yard dash was looked forward to with great interest, as Lee, the University of Penn's best runner, and Hunt, Princeton's favorite, were announced as contestants. Lee, however, sprained his leg, and was unable to appear. An account of the games, with their results, follows:

One hundred yards run—Won by A. H. Hunt, Princeton College. Time—0:10 2-5. Throwing the hammer—F. Larkin, first; distance, 102 feet 7 inches; A. W. Blackwell, Princeton College, second; distance, 88 feet 11 inches. Two hundred and twenty-yard race—L. P. Smock, Princeton College, first, time, 0:24; F. McKaig, Princeton Athletic Club, second; time, 0:25. Running long jump—Won by J. P. Withington, Princeton College; distance, 17 feet 11½ inches. One mile walk—Won by G. B. Phillips, Hudson Boat Club; time—7:28 2-5. Four hundred and forty yards dash—Won by F. McKaig, Princeton Athletic Club; time—0:59 2-5. Pole vaulting—Frank Duke, Princeton Athletic Club, first; distance—9 feet 6 inches; J. P. Withington, Princeton College, second; distance—9 feet 1 inch. One mile run—J. V. Cruser, Princeton Athletic Club, won; time—5:17. Putting the shot—Won by F. Larkin, Princeton College; distance, 34 feet ¾ of an inch. Half-mile run—Won by J. Stewart, Princeton College; time, 2:20 4-5. Running high leap—Won by J. P. Withington, Princeton College; distance, 5 feet. Hurdle race—Won by F. Dennis, Princeton Athletic Club; time, 0:18 4-5.

The New York Times

Published: June 16, 1878

Copyright © The New York Times